1. The following is an Examiner's Statement of Reasons for Allowance:

Applicant's amendment filed 06/20/2005 now including specifically a designating module or device for designating one of a plurality of metering points based on a designation by a user; a display module for causing a display device to display a current state of the input sound signals being transmitted along respective ones of the signal paths, the display device having a level display section, a first alarm display section and a second alarm display section, the level display section, the first alarm display section and the second alarm display section being provided for each of the plurality of signal paths; a level displaying module for causing the level display section to display the level of the input sound signal at the designated metering point of the corresponding signal path; a first alarm displaying module for causing the first alarm display section to display an alarm when the level of the input sound signal exceeds the predetermined value at any one of the metering points of the corresponding signal path; and a second alarm displaying module for causing the second alarm display section to display an alarm when the level of the input sound signal exceeds the predetermined value at the designated metering point of the corresponding signal path. And method claims for performing such specific functions thereof as indicated above.

Art Unit: 2644

The corresponding argument and remark filed 06/20/2005 is also considered and deemed persuasive to overcome cited references and the previous non-final rejection dated 02/16/2005. Update search was conducted, but no additional prior art was found and deemed as appropriate for disclosing and suggesting the particular combination of elements and functional steps as recited in the instant claimed invention.

2. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the Issue Fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the Issue Fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

3. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Xu Mei whose telephone number is 571-272-7523. The examiner can normally be reached on Monday-Friday (9:30-6:00).
